

May 30, 2018 *(revised from May 1st)*

Dear GFOA-CT President Bob Barron,

As chairman of the nominating committee, I hereby inform you of the committee recommended nominees for the 2018-19 GFOA CT Board of Directors.

The following new officers and directors are recommended to replace those whose terms expire in 2018:

President: Peter Erodici (Milford)

First Vice President: Rob Buden (Plainville)

Second Vice President: Michael LeBlanc (Waterbury)

Past President: Bob Barron (Norwalk)

Treasurer: Maryjane Malavasi (Guilford)

NESGFOA Representative: Nominate Lisa Hancock (Tolland) for a new five-year term.

Three Year Directors: Robin Manuele (Bristol, re-nominated for a new term); Kim Lord, Finance Director – Manchester (replacing Michael LeBlanc); Jonathan Perugini (New Britain – replacing Linda Trzetzak)

One Year Director: Nominate Kevin Redmond, Controller – Ridgefield (replacing Jonathan Perugini who moves to a three year term)

The nominating committee has spoken to all new nominees and all have accepted. The nominations will be formally made at the May 31 annual meeting for approval by the membership.

I would like to thank Jim Finch and Diane Waldron for serving with me on the nominating committee this year, and providing valuable input during the process.

In closing, it has been an absolute pleasure serving as a GFOA-CT officer and Executive Board member for many years. Wishing you and the Board of Directors the best for this coming year.

Regards,

Rick Darling, GFOA-CT Past President and Nominating Committee Chair
